

MANY SOCIAL ACTIVITIES BY ATME COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ATME College of Engineering, Mysuru has adopted Mellahalli-Harohalli Government High School, Bannur road and carrying out lot of developmental activities. As a part of adoption, books distribution to school library and planting of different saplings at school premises has been conducted on 29-08-2017.

Dr. L Basavaraj, Principal, ATME College of Engineering inaugurated the event by planting a sapling and explained the importance of plants and trees in avoiding the drought. Dr.Rathnakar G, HOD, Mechanical Engineering, explained the importance of reading books and future plans for development of the school.

More than 500 books, Book Shelves and Dustbins were donated to school. Head mistress of the school Mrs. Nalini thanked the guests; Organiser of the event Mr. Harsha D N welcomed the guests and anchored the event.