

Report on Swatchh Bharath Abhiyaan

The department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, ATME organized an event such as explaining the importance of cleanliness in self, in their home and school, Government scheme of providing financial aid for toilet construction to each family in their village etc. with the help of power point presentation and relevant videos to the school children of Mellahalli High School and Mellahalli Higher Primary School to inculcate values of cleanliness in them on 19th Nov 2016. Sweets were distributed to children at the end of session. NSS student volunteers conducted these events under the guidance of NSS Programme Officer Shashidhar S Gokhale. Many of the ATME Staff actively participated in these events. The events were ably supported by the Heads of all departments and Principal Dr L Basavaraj of ATME College of Engineering, Mysore.

"Pledge taking on cleanliness by the pupils of Mellahalli Higher Primary School".

A group of pupils from Mellahalli Higher Primary School who participated in the event.

And
Professor & Head
Dept. of Electronics & Communication
ATME COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING
Mysuru - 570 028