

A report on

VTU YOUTH FESTIVAL PRATHIBHOTSAVA – 2022

21st VTU YOUTH FESTIVAL, “PRATHIBHOTSAVA – 2022” was organized by BMS College of Engineering, Bengaluru various Cultural and literary event was Scheduled from 29th – 31st July 2022. Based on the screening done at college 10 events were shortlisted and 14 students were selected as participants for the event. Two male faculty managers were accompanied for the event along with students.

SL.NO.	List of Events	No. of Participants	Accompanist
1	Western vocals	1	-
2	Light vocals	1	-
3	Group song Indian	4	-
4	Group song Western	4	-
5	Collage making	1	-
6	Spot photography	1	-
7	Quiz	3	-
8	Cartooning	1	-
9	Debate	2	-
10	Skit	1	-

Students along with faculties reached BMS College of Engineering, Bengaluru campus on 29th of July morning, followed by registration and settled back at accommodation provided by organizing committee.

Participants and Faculty Managers attended Youth Festival 2022

Day 1: 29th July

The Youth fest started with an inauguration function and commencement of various events. Chief guest for the event was Sri. Ramesh Aravind, Indian Actor, Director & Screenwriter and Guest of Honor was Ms. Manjula Gururaj, Playback singer and Dr. H R Sudarshan Reddy, Regional Director, VTU Bengaluru region also various dignitaries were present during the inauguration.

Inauguration of 21st VTU Fest

Collage making:

Fig a - Working on collage event

Fig b – Environmental awareness

Rajesh from 1st Year student participated in Collage event, Themes were given in the event is as follows, Different kinds of People, Environmental awareness or Azadi ka Amruthmahotsava. He selected Environmental awareness shown in fig b.

Day 2: July 30th

Maximum events were scheduled in day 2, our college students' participation was Western solo, Group singing (Indian), Group singing (Western).

Western solo:

Western Solo

Niranjan N from 2nd Year Electronics and Communication Department represented the event and performed song from “Perfect”, “Titanic” and “Fifa”.

Group singing (Indian) and Group singing (Western):

Group singing

Niranjan N, Abhishek M from 2nd Year Electronics & Communication and Ponnanna C P, Nikhil H N from 2nd Year Electrical & Electronics department participated in group singing and sung one song from Hindi “Ondhe Matharam” and another song from kannada “Gudugudiya”.

Day 2 ended with a stage performance from Indushree Nagaraj with her talking doll Dinku.

Day 3: July 31st

Light Vocal (Indian):

Rohan representing event

Rohan Prasanna Shenoy from 1st semester represented the event and performed with Bhavageethe - Idaava Raaga, Sahitya - G.S Shivarudrappa, Sangeeta - C Ashwath, Gayaka - Ratnamala Prakash.

Quiz:

Quiz master is giving instruction to participants

The Quiz question paper was set by Karnataka Quiz academy, and it was consisted of 25 questions with choices. The quiz areas were covered with General knowledge, General science, Constitution, Modern history, Current affairs. The quiz was conducted by well known & popular quiz master Thejaswi Udupa.

Rohan Prasaana Shenoy, Mohammed Fahad Khan and Mohammed Ameen from 1st semester represented the event.

Photography:

Chethan Kumar M C of 2nd year Electronics and Communication Department had participated in the event spot photography. Students participating for the event were given following themes and said to take maximum of 5 photos, a. Finding awesome in the campus, b. Extra ordinary from the event, c. Life of the fest

All photos should be taken inside the campus from 9.00 AM to 12 Noon different After 3 hours of visit, photos were collected from participants and evaluated based on best five photos captured by them. Digital images are evaluated based on impact, composition, technical quality, and suitability for the specific theme.

Followed by the end of the day there was a valedictory function, chief guest for the event was Dr. Karisiddappa, Vice Chancellor, VTU Belagavi.

To summarize our entire experience, we met many talented participants, and it was a great try from our students to learn and exhibit new things. The whole journey was memorable along with competition.

Report Submitted by,

Dr.Muralidhar M P,
Physical Education Director - ATMECE

Mr. Rohith S,
Asst. Professor, Dept. of Mechanical Engg - ATMECE